

Competition!

Calling all students aged 6 – 12!

Design a fun character for our new series

Draw any character you would like to see in an English book

We are currently working on a new and exciting Primary series for learning English and we are inviting students to help create the characters!

Winning designs will be turned into illustrations by real artists and the authors will use them in the stories!

The winner will receive a framed picture of their original character with the final illustration.

To enter

- 1 Ask your students to draw a character and describe them in the template provided (can be photocopied for each child)
- 2 Scan or photograph the drawings and email them to: cambridgeexams@cambridge.org
by 30th April

CHARACTER

Please draw a fantasy character.
It be any form or shape: person, monster, animal or a bit of everything :)

HOUSE OR HOME

Where does your creature live? Please draw the character's home.
It can be on the ground, in the air, under water or on a tree!

LIKES / DISLIKES

Competition Rules

By entering the Cambridge Fun Skills Character Competition (“the Competition”), you agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions. The Competition is run by The Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, acting through its departments, Cambridge University Press (Cambridge University Press, University Printing House, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge, CB2 8BS) and Cambridge Assessment (1 Hills Rd, Cambridge CB1 2EU) (“Cambridge”).

1. The Competition is open to any student at a school or other educational institution. Permission from the school or other educational institution is required to enter the Competition.
2. The Competition begins on 9 February 2018 at 00:00 GMT and closes on 30 April 2018 at 23:59 GMT (“the Competition Period”). Entries received before commencement of or after the expiry of the Competition Period will not be valid for entry into the Competition and will be disregarded by Cambridge, but data may still be used in accordance with these terms and conditions.
3. Only one entry per student will be accepted. Internet access is required in order to participate in the Competition. No purchase is necessary.
4. In order to enter the Competition, you must complete the entry form with your illustration and character description and email the form with all required details to cambridgeexams@cambridge.org. Incomplete entries and any entries deemed by Cambridge to be inappropriate for any reason will not be accepted.
5. Entrants agree that all material and information, the illustration and character description, including biographical details provided (the “Entry Materials”) shall:
  - (ii) be entirely original to the entrant and not published elsewhere; and
  - (iii) shall not infringe the copyright or other intellectual property rights or any other rights of any other person or organisation.
6. Each entrant assigns the full copyright subsisting in the Entry Materials to Cambridge and waives all moral rights in respect of the Entry Materials under the UK Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 and, so far as is legally possible, any broadly equivalent rights it may have in any territory of the world.
7. There will be one individual outright winner who will be chosen after the end of the Competition Period (“the Winner”). The Winner will be chosen by a panel of five (5) judges, four of which will be appointed from within Cambridge’s organisation and one external to the organisation, who will judge on originality, creativity, and suitability for use in the materials.
8. The Winner will be publicly announced via Cambridge’s social media channels (“Social Media Channels”) within thirty (30) days of the winner being notified that they have won. This shall include Facebook

(facebook.com/CambridgeUPELT).

9. Cambridge’s decision is final. Once selected, the winner will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.
10. Only the winning entry will be contacted. The Winner will need to supply Cambridge with their postal address to receive the prize.
11. The prize is as follows: re-creation of the Winner’s illustration by an artist. The Winner will receive a framed print of the original illustration alongside the artist’s version.
12. The Winner’s illustration will be featured in Cambridge’s new young learner series for teaching skills. Other entrants illustrations may also be chosen to feature in the series, at Cambridge’s discretion,
13. The Winner will be selected within thirty (30) days of the end of the Competition Period. Cambridge shall notify the Winner that they have won a prize by email. Should the Winner not respond or provide the necessary information required to process the prize as set out in Cambridge’s notifying email within fourteen (14) days of the date of that email, the prize shall be forfeited and a replacement Winner will be selected.
14. The prize is non-transferrable and cannot be exchanged by the winner for cash or credit or any other product. There is no cash alternative.
15. Cambridge excludes liability to the extent permitted by law for any cost, claims or losses howsoever caused that arise by reason of any person’s entry into the Competition or the award, or non-award, to them of a prize. Prizes are supplied “as is” with no express guarantee or warranty as to their suitability or quality. Delivery of the Winner’s prize may take up to ninety (90) days.
16. By entering this Competition you agree, if selected as the winner, to participate in all related publicity as may reasonably be requested by Cambridge.
17. Cambridge will not sell your personal information to others or release it to others without your prior consent, and will only use your personal data as outlined in Cambridge’s privacy policy (<http://www.cambridge.org/about-us/legal-notices/privacy-policy/>).
18. The Competition is not open to employees of Cambridge, their agents or contractors and anyone else connected with the Competition.
19. Cambridge reserves the right to cancel the Competition at any time. No correspondence will be entered into. The Competition and these terms and conditions (including any non-contractual disputes or claims arising out of them) are subject to English law and any disputes or claims must be referred to English courts.
